

Charles B. Duff

President, Jubilee Baltimore

Charlie Duff is an experienced developer and planner and an authority on Baltimore's architecture and development. In nineteen years as Jubilee's President, Charlie has led a team that has built or rebuilt houses and apartments for thousands of Baltimoreans. Charlie is a frequent lecturer on architectural history at the Walters Art Museum and the Johns Hopkins University. He is the past president of both the Baltimore Architecture Foundation and the Patterson Park Community Development Corporation. Charlie is a graduate of Amherst College and the Harvard Graduate School of Design.

About Jubilee

Jubilee Baltimore is a non-profit developer and neighborhood revitalization organization. Jubilee helps the people of Baltimore to build safe, stable, desirable, mixed-income neighborhoods through affordable housing development and neighborhood revitalization. We function both as a developer and as a development consultant, helping to strengthen weak housing markets, increase the attractiveness and vitality of city neighborhoods, and bring about revival without displacement or social disruption.