

MARILEE A. UTTER, CRE

Marilee Utter is Executive Vice President, District Councils, at the Urban Land Institute (ULI), a 30,000-member global organization dedicated to providing leadership in the responsible use of land and creation and support of thriving communities worldwide. She oversees the staff and management of ULI's 70+ National and District Councils around the world, and hold Executive Team responsibility for global strategy, investment and management.

Previously, she was founder and President of Citiventure Associates LLC and Managing Partner of P3 West, LLC. Both firms worked nationally and focused on public-private transactions, infrastructure, and development of mixed-use projects, transit-oriented developments (TOD), failed mall sites, and large-scale master-plans.

In addition to experience as a banker with (now) Wells Fargo Bank and private developer (with Trillium Corporation managing the revitalization of Denver's Central Platte Valley rail yards), she previously established the Office of Asset Management for the City and County of Denver, and the Department of Transit-Oriented Development for the (Denver) Regional Transit District.

With this unique background, Marilee has become a nationally known speaker, writer, and advisor on innovative approaches to community redevelopment and urban issues.

Marilee holds an MBA from UCLA's Anderson School, a certificate in State and Local Public Policy from Harvard's Kennedy School, and a designation from the Counselors of Real Estate (CRE). She is a past national Trustee for the Urban Land Institute and Chair of the Colorado District Council. In addition, she serves on the boards of many community organizations, including the Metropolitan State College of Denver Foundation and the Center for Visual Arts.
