

ULI – Baltimore – presents
“Content before Cocktails”

LIVE, WORK AND PLAY!
ULI Baltimore’s “Content Before Cocktails” at Odenton Gateway

What’s happening in West Anne Arundel County? What isn’t?

It is home of the Ft. Meade growth, BRAC relocations, the new U.S. Cyber Command headquarters, National Security Agency (NSA) expansion, and the Odenton Town Center.

Join ULI Baltimore for our next Third Thursday as we take a tour of “The Haven at Odenton Gateway” and hear from the County’s Odenton Town Plan Oversight Committee and two leading developers.

Stephen Horne, Vice President from Elm Street Development, (who has been developing the planned unit development at Odenton Gateway) Ben Graves, Multifamily Division President from Johnson Development Associates (who has been developing The Haven at Odenton Gateway project) and James Frasier, Chairman of the Odenton Town Plan Oversight Committee. They will each share the growth plans and development opportunities within the County.
