Robert Broome is director of governmental affairs for the Atlanta Board of REALTORS® and the Atlanta Commercial Board of REALTORS®. He coordinates the boards’ legislative and regulatory agenda and promotes the REALTOR® message to local governments across the region.

Before joining the ABR/ACBR staff in March 2007, Robert served the Tennessee Association of REALTORS® for four years as director of governmental affairs. His lobbying experience also includes two years as a contract lobbyist and public relations consultant with The Ingram Group, where his diverse mix of clients included companies and trade groups in the construction, health care, telecommunications, real estate, transportation, manufacturing, and financial industries.

Prior to becoming a lobbyist, Robert spent four years as an analyst for the Research Division of the Tennessee House of Representatives. He worked closely with the House leadership on a wide variety of issues, including business taxation, telecommunications, annexation and land use, and tax reform.

Robert has also served as a political consultant to over 50 campaigns in various capacities, including research, polling, fundraising, strategy, and communications.

Robert is the recipient of the 2008 ABR President’s Award and the 2009 NAR Gabby Award for Best Local Advocacy Campaign. He serves on the NAR REALTORS® Political Involvement Committee and as vice chair of the NAR Government Affairs Directors Institute. Robert graduated with honors from Austin Peay State University with a bachelor’s degree in Political Science.
