

About ULI-the Urban Land Institute

ULI—the Urban Land Institute is a nonprofit education and research institute that is supported by its members. Its mission is to provide responsible leadership in the use of land in order to enhance our total environment. Established in 1936, the Institute today has nearly 30,000 members representing the entire spectrum of the land use and development disciplines. They comprise of developers, builders, property owners, investors, architects, public officials, planners, real estate brokers, appraisers, attorneys, engineers, financiers, academics, students and librarians.

ULI District Council Program Objectives

- Provide a forum for exchange of information about real estate and planning issues at a local level.
- Offer members additional opportunities to interact with full members and to participate in ULI programs.
- Raise awareness of local land use issues among public officials, academics, students, and the public at large.
- Introduce non-members to ULI and its high-quality programs.
- To be the convener of stakeholders to provide solutions to local land use issues.
- To provide outreach activities in local communities such as Urban Plan and Technical Assistance Panels.
