

Lynne R. O'Brien joined The Coca-Cola Company in 1988 where she worked in the Patent and Technology Law Group in the Corporate Legal Division. She moved into the Corporate Real Estate Function in 1995 as Manager of Leasing Services. In 2001 she was named Director of Corporate Real Estate. She handles all corporate acquisitions and dispositions of real estate for the Company in the United States and all domestic corporate leasing activity. She also oversees all international real estate transactions. Selected accomplishments include the assemblage of the land which is now home to the World of Coca-Cola and Georgia Aquarium, Inc. and the future home of the Center for Civil and Human Rights. Prior to The Coca-Cola Company, Mrs. O'Brien worked for Bryan Cave Powell Goldstein and Health Images, Inc.

Mrs. O'Brien is a member of CoreNet Global and has served on the Board of Directors of CoreNet Atlanta and was a founding member of the CoreNet Global Diversity Committee. She also is a member of CREW Atlanta, where she has served as Program Committee Chair, and on the Board of Directors as Treasurer and Sponsorship Chair. She has spoken on the topic of supplier diversity at several CoreNet Global Symposiums and at the CREW National Convention. Mrs. O'Brien received a Special Recognition Award from The Coca-Cola Company's Office of Supplier Diversity for her efforts in promoting supplier diversity within the Company.

Mrs. O'Brien received a B.A. in biology from Wake Forest University in 1985 and a J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law in 1994. She is a member of the State Bar of Georgia and is a registered patent attorney.

She is an active volunteer in her local school system and her church. Mrs. O'Brien also serves on the Board of Directors of CURE Childhood Cancer and the Board of Directors of the Georgia State University Alumni Association.