

Development: Here We Go Again...Part Deux

Wednesday, November 14, 2012
6:00PM – 8:30 PM

Despite the Great Recession's toll on Atlanta's development community we are continuing to see signs of recovery. As a follow-up to our June panel, we are excited to feature four additional large-scale projects under-way in Old Fourth Ward, Buckhead, Central Perimeter and at Emory. These projects offer encouragement for our region's real estate and construction future as project ideas become reality. This momentum will carry us into the next exciting cycle of real estate development in Atlanta.

Join us for a special panel discussion to learn about how the recovery is taking shape for multi-family, office, hospitality, and retail projects. Learn what the new market realities and challenges are for four key sectors in Atlanta real-estate.

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Panelists:

Multifamily – Phil Tague, AMLI, AMLI Ponce Park
Retail – Mike Cohn, Cousins Properties, Emory Point
Office – Kyle Jenks, Parkside Partners, 2061 Peachtree
