

ULI Atlanta & Knoxville Real Estate Industry Leaders Present...

What's Next: Opportunities and Challenges in the Future Growth and Development of East Tennessee

A new economy has begun to unfold and will continue to do so over the next decade. Come hear industry leading professionals discuss the state of the current economy and the events that led us to where we are. Learn how to address and capitalize on the opportunities, trends and challenges in our region, while looking forward into the next decade of growth and development in Knoxville and East Tennessee.

In the world of real estate investing the continual challenge is to understand new trends, capitalize on market opportunities and direct investment funds in strategic ways. No time in recent memory has been as complex or as subject to detailed analysis as our current time – or changing as rapidly.
